OUTCOMES Students will read classified ads in order to find an appropriate job.	STUDENT GOALS Students need to be able to read classified ads in order to successfully enter the workforce.	MATERIALS Overhead projector Help wanted ads from a newspaper enlarged/copied onto a transparency Flash cards with abbreviations Scrap paper Reading Help Wanted Ads Learning Objects NRS EFL 3-5 TIME FRAME 2 hours
STANDARD Read with Understanding	LEARNER PRIOR KNOWLEDGE Students have already learned employment/job/workplace vocabulary. Students have already reviewed the importance of having a job. The student's level of proficiency in their native language affects acquisition of a second language, remember to always build their new learning on their existing skill base.
COPS Determine the reading purpose.	ACTIVITY ADDRESSES Small group discussion on jobs and appropriate ways to find a job.	ACTIVITIES [REAL-LIFE APPLICATIONS] Step 1 - In small groups, students discuss their jobs (Do they work? If so, where? How did they find their current job? How long have they worked there? What are some ways to find a job? etc.) Report back.
Select reading strategies appropriate to the purpose.	Teacher presentation of a newspaper and students learn common abbreviations for reading help-wanted ads.	Step 2 - Teacher presents a newspaper and explains that students will be using the classified ads to search for jobs. Teacher presents flash cards with common help-wanted ad abbreviations written on them. Identify abbreviations by guessing as a class.
Monitor comprehension and adjust reading strategies.	Whole group identification of ads and abbreviations from an actual job listing.	Step 3 - On the overhead projector, teacher shows an enlarged portion of 3-4 help wanted ads from the paper. Students identify common abbreviations that were just learned as a review. Students come to the board and write these abbreviations and their meanings on the board.
Analyze the information and reflect on its underlying meaning.	Student practicing scanning ads and answering questions about an ad.	Step 4 - In pairs, students scan help wanted ads. Students find a job in the ads that they would want to apply for, and circle the ad. Students then answer discussion questions pertaining to their circled ads.
Integrate it (i.e. new information) with prior knowledge to address the reading purpose.	Student presentations, reflection, and search for an ad outside the classroom.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is the job title? 2. What is the job description? 3. How much does the job pay? (If stated at all) 4. What are the job qualifications? 5. Who must you contact for further information about this job? 6. Why would you enjoy this job? Students write abbreviations or words that are still unfamiliar on the board and identify these words.

		Step 5 - Students present and explain their circled ad to the class, using the discussion questions. For homework as follow-up, students find a help wanted ad in a newspaper, answer the questions, and present to class.
ASSESSMENT/EVIDENCE Students will demonstrate understanding of help wanted ads by choosing an appropriate job listing, answering questions related to that listing, and present it to the class. REFLECTION/EVALUATION not yet completed NEXT STEPS		PURPOSEFUL & TRANSPARENT The lesson has the purpose of demonstrating how to find a job. CONTEXTUAL Working and having a job are extremely important in the context of everyday life; the lesson demonstrates this importance. BUILDING EXPERTISE Students gain useful job hunting skills through the lesson.
